Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others; and,

Whereas, Jan McEntee has been teaching at St. Mary's School in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, for 40 years, living out her philosophy of education on a daily basis; and,

Whereas, Jan provides leadership and oversight to her teaching peers and works on curriculum teams in all content areas for the Sioux Falls Catholic schools; and,

Whereas, Jan is an active member of the St. Michael's Parish choir, volunteers as a lector, Religious Education teacher, Eucharistic minister, and is a member of the Advisory Board; and,

Whereas, On January 9, 2008, staff and students will celebrate Miss McEntee's 40 years of dedicated service to St. Mary's School; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan as an educator and child advocate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 9, 2008, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
